

MASTER BUILDERS ASSOCIATION OF VICTORIA

INDUSTRY LUNCHEON

VISION FOR THE VICTORIAN BUILDING INDUSTRY:
THE HON. MATTHEW GUY MP
LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION, LEADER OF THE LIBERAL PARTY

The state election in November will likely determine the future of our industry in this state. Building industry issues such as planning, housing affordability and major infrastructure issues are critical to the future prosperity of Victoria.

This luncheon offers a special opportunity for members of Master Builders to ask the Leader of the Opposition Matthew Guy MP the questions that matter most. Get to understand his policy platform and his priorities for the building industry. He's ready to hear from you.

Join us for this session before the election.

GUEST SPEAKER: The Hon. Matthew Guy MP
Leader of the Opposition, Leader of the Liberal Party

Matthew Guy was elected Leader of the Opposition and Leader of the Victorian Liberal Party in December 2014.

First elected to Parliament in November 2006, Matthew was re-elected in 2010, and again in 2014 for the seat of Bulleen in Melbourne's eastern suburbs. In December 2010, he was appointed Victorian Minister for Planning and appointed Minister for Multicultural Affairs and Citizenship in 2014.

Prior to entering Parliament, Matthew had worked at the Victorian Farmers Federation, the Australian Securities and Investment Commission and in political roles for Premier Jeff Kennett and Federal Assistant Treasurer Rod Kemp.
