

Council of Management Candidate

Graham Cressey

SPECIALIST CONTRACTOR NOMINEE

Graham Cressey Industrial Demolition

Graham has been involved in the Demolition Industry for over 25 years. Having worked from the ground up through supervision, site management, estimating, project management, business development and divisional management, he is currently Managing Director (Demolition) for Industrial Demolition and Environmental Services. While Melbourne based, the group completes projects Australia wide for a range of corporate clients in the Oil, Chemical, Manufacturing, Defence and Infrastructure sectors.

During his working career, Graham has worked for both corporations and private businesses including Australian Defence Industries and The Alex Fraser Group. Since 2009, he has worked with Industrial Group, expanding the groups footprint to a national level with a peak employee count of more than 80.

Graham's trade background has always fostered a hands-on approach to management, and he likes nothing more than getting into the minutiae of project planning and execution. He holds a Builder – Demolisher (Unlimited) practitioner registration for Victoria, and similar qualifications for Western Australian, Queensland, South Australia, and New South Wales.

As current President of the Demolition and Asbestos Industry Association of Victoria (DAIA), Graham is in a unique position to not only understand and represent the interests of Demolition and Asbestos contractors, but to understand the challenges faced by all specialist contractors.
