

Sector Group Committee Candidate

Matt Gilmour

GENERAL CONTRACTING NOMINEE

Matt Gilmour
APM

With 30 years' experience in construction locally, nationally and overseas, Matt has a broad base of experience specialising in creating strong teams. Matt grew up in Gippsland then completed a Bachelor of Planning Design and Bachelor of Building at Melbourne University.

Interested in capitalising on the SE Asian construction boom of the 90s, Matt worked for a tier one builder in Singapore from 1993-1994 gaining fast paced experience. Returning to Melbourne, he joined an award-winning residential contractor, Easton Builders. After contributing to local growth into the commercial sector, Matt led the expansion of the business into NSW, with highlights including Bondi Icebergs, Beresford Hotel and $20M private homes.

For the past three years Matt has been the Construction Manager at APM Group – a business with 30 years' commercial construction expertise – servicing a range of private and government clients including the Department of Justice, Reserve Bank and Melbourne Water.

Matt's experience includes chairing a number of boards in construction companies and a consultancy firm, dealing with venture capitalist buyouts, creating start-ups and overseeing business closures. Board involvement and depth of tenure has provided Matt first-hand experience dealing with various legal disputes through VCAT, Magistrates court, mediations and Security of Payments Act adjudications.

Matt has been a guest speaker at Melbourne University and Melbourne Polytechnic.

Married with four teenage children, Matt served on the committee of Kew Comets Football Club overseeing 20 male plus eight female teams, and is now looking forward to the opportunity to provide his services for Master Builders Victoria.
