Master Builders welcomes Coalitions Stamp Duty cut for seniors

The Master Builders Association of Victoria has welcomed the Coalitions announcement to provide $42 million in stamp duty relief for seniors and self-funded retirees.

Association Executive Director Brian Welch said the $42 million relief package will help ease the housing affordability burden facing senior Victorians.

“This is a great win for Victoria’s empty nesters and retirees,” said Mr Welch.

“Thousands of senior Victorians will now be able to downsize their homes at a more affordable price.”

The relief comes following Master Builders housing affordability campaign ‘Is Anybody Listening?’ For more info, visit www.isanybodylistening.com.au.
