Master Builders congratulates David Newnham on election to CoINVEST Board

The Master Builders Association of Victoria has congratulated its immediate past President, David Newnham, on his election to the CoINVEST Board of Directors.

Mr Newnham was elected to the board in May to commence his term as a director on 1 July, replacing outgoing board member Trevor Fasham. His first board meeting is on 5 July.

Executive Director of the Master Builders Association of Victoria, Brian Welch welcomed the election of Mr Newnham saying "Mr Newnham's election will ensure that the building industry and employers have a strong voice on the CoINVEST Board".

"The Master Builders Association has a long history of working cooperatively with CoINVEST and we look forward to an ongoing positive relationship after the new board takes shape".

Established in 1976, CoINVEST administers the Portable Long Service Leave Scheme for the construction industry in Victoria.

CoINVEST has more than 161,800 active workers, 15,100 employers and 22,700 subcontractors registered with their fund, with a total of $570 million under management.
